LIFE'S BUILDING BLOCKS

75+ YEARS BUILT ON FAMILY VALUES

For more than 75 years, architects, builders, masons and homeowners have relied on Canadian made Shouldice Stone for durable, eye-catching results. Whether you are creating your dream home or working on a marquee project for your company, Shouldice masonry products are built to last.

QUALITY

Shouldice take the utmost care in selecting the finest materials, and using the most technologically advanced methods and processes to manufacture product of unparalleled quality.

SERVICE

Built on family values, Shouldice Stone confers those beliefs on its customers through a knowledgeable customer service team that is proud and passionate about fulfilling customer needs.

INNOVATION

Shouldice strives to be a leader in innovation across both product creation, and production methodologies.

PRODUCT SELECTION

Shouldice prides themselves on a wide array of exceptional products, carefully curated with the customer in mind. Take your pick from the vast selection of colours and styles; if you don't see it in the lineup, any dream can be made a reality.

Our brand is our name. For three generations the Shouldice family has owned and operated Shouldice Stone. Our grandfather, Bev Shouldice, started the company in 1947. Our parents, Rob and June then grew the business by adding numerous innovations and new products to reflect our customer's expanding tastes. Today we are honoured to continue the family legacy and are growing our business for generations to come. We proudly carry on our Family's promise:

"Our word is our bond, and our handshake is a contract."

- Brad & Steve Shouldice
